ORAL ORDER

In this petition, the petitioner seeks the following reliefs:

"a) Issue a Writ of Certiorari or any other appropriate writ, order, or direction, to quash/set aside the endorsement dated 02.04.2026 (Annexure-E) issued by Respondent No.2, as being arbitrary and illegal;

b) Issue a Writ of Certiorari or any other appropriate write, order, or direction, to quash/set aside the order dated 27.04.2026 (Annexure-F) issued by Respondent No.3, as being arbitrary and illegal;

c) Issue a Writ of Mandamus, directing the Respondents No.2 and 3 to release the petitioner's husband i.e., convicted prisoner Dodda Pakeerappa S/o. Somappa Konedevuru (CTP No.14047) Aged about 57 years, R/o R.H. Colony, No.3, Jawalgera, Sindhanur Taluk, Raichur Dist-584143, presently serving his life sentence in District Prison, Bellary, on General Parole for a period of 90 days to attend to his ailing mother;

d) Grant such other relief(s) as this Hon'ble Court deems fit in the interest of justice and equity."

2. A perusal of the material on record will indicate that the petitioner is the wife of Sri Dodda Pakeerappa (CTP No.14047) who was convicted by the Sessions Court in S.C.No.57/2022 vide judgment dated 01.04.2025 whereby he is undergoing life imprisonment and serving life sentence at the District Prison, Bellary. The petitioner had earlier approached this Court in W.P.No.202525/2025 seeking grant of general parole which was disposed of by this Court vide final order dated 06.03.2026 directing respondent No.2 – Jail Authorities to consider the representation of the petitioner dated 31.07.2025 for grant of general parole and to pass appropriate orders within a period of two weeks.

3. According to the petitioner, the mother of the convict is old and ailing and wants to spend her last days with her son who is the husband of the petitioner and accordingly the petitioner requested grant of general parole in favour of her husband. Respondent No.3 rejected the parole application filed by the petitioner vide impugned order dated 27.04.2026 in pursuance of which respondent No.2 issued the impugned endorsement dated 02.04.2026 rejecting parole application of the petitioner, who is before this Court by way of the present petition.

4. Heard the learned counsel for the petitioner and learned Additional Government Advocate for the respondents and perused the material on record.

5. The material on record discloses that the petitioner's husband has been convicted and sentenced to undergo imprisonment for life in relation to proceedings in S.C.No.57/2022 vide judgment dated 01.04.2025 and the petitioner seeks parole on behalf of her husband on humanitarian ground that her mother-in-law i.e., the mother of the convict is old and suffering from various ailments and wants to spend her last days with the husband of the petitioner. Under these circumstances, having regard to the material on record, including the photographs which clearly indicates that the mother of the convict is age old and suffering from various diseases and I deem it just and appropriate to quash the impugned order and endorsement and grant parole for a period of six weeks which becomes operational from 13.06.2026 to 24.07.2026.

6. In the result, the following:

ORDER
