2. The petitioner is facing trial for the offence under Section 138 of the Negotiable Instruments Act, 1881. The petitioner had filed an application before the learned Metropolitan Magistrate Fast Track-I, Allikulam, Chennai seeking to recall P.W.1. However, the learned Magistrate dismissed the said application vide order dated 08.09.2025, stating that the petitioner had been continuously absent before the Court. Challenging the same, the present petition has been filed.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner submits that though there were laches on the part of the petitioner in not cross- examining the witness on the date fixed by the trial Court, denial of an opportunity would cause grave prejudice to her. He further submits that the petitioner is ready and willing to cross-examine the witness on any date fixed by the trial Court and is also prepared to abide by any stringent condition that may be imposed by this Court. He further submits that the petitioner will co-operate for the speedy disposal of the case.

4. Per contra, learned counsel appearing for the respondent / complainant submits that the chief examination in the case was completed on 29.07.2025 and thereafter, the matter was posted on several dates, namely, 05.01.2025, 21.08.2025, 08.09.2025 and 11.09.2025. Since the petitioner did not take any steps to cross-examine P.W.1, the learned trial judge had dismissed the application and closed the evidence. Taking into consideration the petitioner's continuous defiance by non-appearance before the Court, the learned counsel would object to the allowing of the present petition.

5. At this juncture, the learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner, in order to show her bona fides, is ready to deposit a sum of Rs.50,000/- to the credit of C.C.No.658 of 2021 and the petitioner undertakes that P.W.1 will be cross-examined on any day fixed by the trial judge.

6. Heard the learned counsel appearing on either side and perused the materials available on record.

7. Though this Court finds that the petitioner had continuously not appeared before the trial Court for cross-examination of P.W.1, and the trial Court has rightly dismissed the petition taking into consideration the submissions made, this Court is of the opinion that one opportunity may be afforded to the petitioner to cross-examine the witness.
