CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE RAJIV ROY

ORAL ORDER

4 01-07-2026 Heard the parties.

2. The petitioner is apprehending his arrest in connection with Ram Krishna Nagar P.S. Case No. 207 of 2025 registered for the offence punishable under Sections 126(2), 115(2), 333, 109 and 3(5), lodged on 14.03.2025 by the informant Sanjit Kumar.

3. As per the prosecution story, the informant alleged that the accused resorted to use of vulgar songs in a loud voice and upon objection, the allegation is that the informant side was assaulted by bricks. He was taken to the hospital and the stitches came up on his head. This followed the FIR.

4. Learned counsel for the petitioner submit that though the informant claims to have got stitches, no injury report is available in the case diary but the injury report of Pulse

Emergency Hospital shows that after providing First-Aid, he was discharged. The confusion between the parties led to the FIR and since they are neighbour, the petitioner without accepting the allegation or outcome of the present petition, on his own, like to contribute Rs.5,000/- to the informant towards treatment by Demand Draft issued by the local branch of the State Bank of India/any Nationalized Bank to be submitted at the time of execution of bail bond.

5. Learned APP opposes the prayer submitting that he has criminal antecedent.

6. Considering the submission of the parties and omnibus allegation of assault is there, the injury report show that after First-Aid, the injured was discharged from the hospital, in that background, this Court is inclined to extend him privilege of anticipatory bail subject to payment of Rs.5,000/- to the informant as undertaken by the learned counsel for the petitioner through Demand Draft issued by the local branch of the State Bank of India/any Nationalized Bank to be submitted at the time of execution of the bail bond and after checking credentials the same shall be handed over to the informant.

7. Let the petitioner be released on bail in the event of arrest or surrender within a period of four weeks from the
