2. Learned counsel for the petitioners, at the very outset, submits that there are some new developments, which has a direct bearing upon the impugned orders.

3. He further submits that in the year 2016, the department concerned, were deducting an amount by maintaining the account of CPF in view of the university's own regulation. Thereafter, in the year 2016, the university issued new regulations, requiring the affiliated colleges to transfer all accumulated amount from CPF to EPF, and in pursuance thereof, the entire accumulation in the CPF account, has now been transferred to the EPF account.

4. He finally, submits that in view of the above supervening events, the department concerned, is now required to re-assess, if there is any deficiency/liability on the part of the petitioners.

5. On the other hand, learned counsel for respondent no.2, submits that he does not have any specific instructions in this regard, however, in case the entire accumulated amount of CPF has been transferred to the EPF account, the authority concerned is required to reconsider/re-assess the matter, afresh.

6. In view of the above, the impugned orders are set aside, with a mandamus upon the competent authority, i.e. the Regional Provident Fund Commissioner, to reconsider/re-assess the entire matter, in view of the supervening events as recorded above.
